

SANTIAGO ÁLVAREZ CARREÑO

Since 2001 full Lecturer in the University of Murcia (Spain). Prof. Álvarez Carreño has collaborated in many collective books and has published numerous articles in specialized journals both in Spain and abroad. He has also published in media and in specialized blogs. He has participated in many research projects, in six of them as a lead researcher. He has prepared several legal opinions for different institutions. Prof. Alvarez Carreño has been speaker in several national and international Congresses and has given classes, courses and lectures in several Universities both in Spain and abroad. He is member of the Spanish Association of Environmental Law (ADAME), of the Spanish Association of Professors of Administrative Law (AEPDA) and a researcher at the Center for Environmental Studies of the University Rovira i Virgili of Tarragona (CEDAT). He is also a member of the Centro de Estudios en Bioderecho —CEBES (Centre of Studies in BioLaw. UMU) and partner of the New Water Culture Foundation. He has been visiting professor at the UNESCO Centre for Water Law, Policy and Science (Dundee. UK), at the Environmental Law Center (University of Vermont. South Royalton. USA) and at the Institut des Sciences Juridique & Philosophique (Université Paris - Panthéon Sorbonne. France).